

How do I handle conflict?

Sunday, October 11th, 2016

Twin City Community Church is committed to resolving conflict in a way that brings great glory to God, builds up the church, as well as honors the scriptures in what they lay out regarding conflict and relationships. These principles are briefly discussed below. For a more detailed explanation, please see The Peacemaker: A Biblical Guide to Resolving Personal Conflict, by Ken Sande (Baker Books, 2nd ed. 1997), and "Lord of the Ring", a sermon series by Todd Wagner, Pastor at Watermark Church in Dallas, Texas.

Round 1: Weighing In On Conflict:

The Fight before the Fight

Matthew 7:5

See Conflict as an opportunity

Friends; Let's glorify God!

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Round 2: Getting in the Ring

Don't Sweat the Small Stuff

Overlook minor offenses

Don't spread the big stuff

Matthew 18:15, 1 Peter 5:5, Proverbs 15:1-2, Proverbs 20:18, Proverbs 16:21, 27:12, Ephesians 4:29

Don't stop if you've been stiffed

Take others along (Matthew 18:17)

Don't stop if it gets sticky

Go and be reconciled

Round 3: Going the Distance

Be prepared for unreasonable people

Eph. 4:29, 1 Peter 2:12, 3:15-16, 1 Peter 2:19

Get help from above

Philippians 4:6-7, Matthew 5:9

Get help from the church

Matthew 18:16-17

The Peacemaker's Pledge

As people reconciled to God by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we believe that we are called to respond to conflict in a way that is remarkably different from the way the world deals with conflict. We also believe that conflict provides opportunities to glorify God, serve other people, and grow to be like Christ. Therefore, in response to God's love and in reliance on His grace, we commit ourselves to respond to conflict according to the following principles:

Glorify God – Instead of focusing on our own desires or dwelling on what others may do, we will seek to please and honor God – by depending on His wisdom, power, and love; by faithfully obeying His commands; and by seeking to maintain a loving, merciful, and forgiving attitude.

Get the log out of your own eye – Instead of attacking others or dwelling on their wrongs, we will take responsibility for our own contribution to conflicts – confessing our sins, asking God to help us change any attitudes and habits that lead to conflict, and seeking to repair any harm we have caused.

Go and show your Brother his fault – Instead of pretending that conflict doesn't exist or talking about others behind their backs, we will choose to overlook minor offenses, or we will talk directly and graciously with those whose offenses seem too serious to overlook. When a conflict with another Christian cannot be resolved in private, we will ask others in the body of Christ to help us settle the matter in a biblical manner.

Go and Be reconciled – Instead of accepting premature compromise or allowing relationships to wither, we will actively pursue genuine peace and reconciliation – forgiving others as God, for Christ's sake, has forgiven us, and seeking just and mutually beneficial solutions to our differences.

By God's grace, we will apply these principles as a matter of stewardship, realizing that conflict is an opportunity, not an accident. We will remember that success, in God's eyes, is not a matter of specific results but of faithful, dependent obedience. And we will pray that our service as peacemakers brings praise to our Lord and leads others to know His infinite love.
